In 2014, a Stanford University study found that out of 1,700 active breweries surveyed, only 4% had a female head brewer or brewmaster. However, women have long held influential roles in all aspects of beer making. They were the principal brewers for centuries and, were responsible for introducing hops to the malty brew. Today, with the Northwest craft beer renaissance, more and more women are taking the lead at local breweries as brewers, bottlers, sales people and owners. Through this event, we will highlight women's historic role in beer and discuss how women are shaping today's craft beer resurgence. For example, Seattle's Stoup Brewing co-owner, Robyn Schumacher, is an owner, brewer, taproom manager and, since passing the test in 2012, a certified cicerone — the first-ever female cicerone in Washington state.
